

RISE OF THE WOUNDED WARRIOR ARMY OF THE LORD

By Joanne Cook Danner

The Lord has an army of wounded warriors that he will heal, restore, and cause to rise from the ashes in their zenith in this hour as a mighty eagle taking flight, equipped to soar with authority in the governmental realm of God. To those who have believed that they have been wounded beyond repair, the Lord says, "rise up my beloved." My eye has always been diligent in watching over you. I felt every tear that you have ever shed pierce my heart. Jesus, your High Priest, is touched with the feelings associated with your infirmities and is continuously making intercession for you (Heb. 4:15). I have been moved with mercy and compassion toward you concerning every circumstance that caused you to shed tears and anguish. Cherished one, I have gathered every tear in my bottle that is kept close to my heart. I heard your desperate cries from the depths of your spirit when you were crying out to me from the hidden, secret place. Never doubt my love for you. I have loved you with an everlasting love (Jer. 31:3). Even when your vision could not see beyond the circumstances that caused breaking, and you did not have the ability to perceive your life through kingdom vision, I saw and heard you. Even though many have felt at times that the light within was reduced to a flickering flame because of the testing and trials, you will now be aware that the breath of God is blowing upon you. "A bruised reed he will not break, and a smoldering wick he will not snuff out" (Matt: 12:20, NKJV). That flickering flame that you thought was all that was left in you will be fanned by the hand of the Lord into a mighty fire of glory. You will be quickened by might in the inner man as the glory of God is revealed in and through you. I have come to abide in you, and the fragrance of my presence will be released through your life to minister to others. You are my dwelling place individually and corporately.

Did you think that I forgot you? "Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, yet I will not forget thee" (Isa. 49:15, KJV). I am the Lord. I change not and will never forget you. Did you think that you were alone and abandoned? During the dark seasons that you experienced in your life, you were walking upon the train of my garment, and I was pulling you out of the darkness while you were walking upon my train. I pulled you through the darkness to the tabernacle of light. You were in my heart before the foundation of the earth when I formed you and designed a holy destiny for you according to the pattern for the tapestry of your life. The pattern in your tapestry is of divine origin. I was with you when you were formed in your mother's womb. You are fearfully and wonderfully made. You will now walk out your destiny in the womb of the morning of the new day that is expeditiously unfolding in the earth in the timing of the Lord.

Do not count the things that you have perceived as lost. Look instead to the victorious things that are ahead as you become my hands and feet in the earth. I am building up the walls of protection around you. "See, I have engraved you on the palms of my hands; your walls are ever before me" (Isa. 49:16). I am closer to you than breath. Do not deny your dreams. Your dreams are aligned with the dreams that are in my plan. Do not doubt. "For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end" (Jer. 29:11, KJV). You will traverse the finish line in victory. "The people that know their God shall be strong and do exploits" (Dan. 11:32). They know that their hope is in the Lord of Hosts. They trust in his mighty power to "work all things together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose" (Rom. 8:28).

My resurrection life will transform and conform you into a vessel that is meet for the master's use in this hour. The veil will be removed, and you will see clearly. You will arise in your strength, cloaked with the intuitive knowledge that the Kingdom of God is within you. "No weapon that is formed against you shall prosper, and every tongue which rises against you in judgment, you shall condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is from Me, Says the LORD" (Isa: 54:17, NKJV). As you take your covenant appointment for the glory of God as the harvest bride, I will make your tongue as the pen of a ready writer from the pen of the Lord that is in his hand to write truth on the tablets of the hearts of humanity and speak my words of life to others for my glory (Ps. 45:1). I will use your sanctified tongue to decree and declare victory over the powers of darkness. They have no dominion over you. Your tongue will be as powerful as a two-edged sword speaking forth transformative truth from the Word of God (Heb. 4:12).

No longer will the wounded warrior army be held in siege on the Threshing Floor of the Lord as the precious has been separated from the vile in their lives. They have willingly walked the way of the cross. They will know who they are in God and are coming forth as the army of the Lord in detailed, battle array sewn together with the spiritual thread of unity. They will know the authority of the government of God that is within them and will be adept at releasing the anointing of the resurrection life of Christ that dwells within them. They will stand to their feet in strength as a mighty corporate army, a force to be reckoned with, and they will not break rank. They will do battle in the spirit while wielding the victorious sword of the Lord that will cut to the joints and marrow in the spirit to reveal the thoughts and intents of the heart to set the captives free. In this hour when everything that can be shaken will be shaken and exposed, the army of the Lord is being raised up to be strong and do exploits. Truth will be their shield and armor. The banner of the Lord, the Lion of Judah, will be raised up before them. They will be as an ensign upon the land. Hear the global sound of the army of the Lord awakening and marching forward in this hour with the Lord of Hosts at the helm. It is the time for you to arise and shine as a light in the darkness (Isa. 60:1). Arise, O bride of the harvest. God is with you, and you were destined to be brought to the kingdom for such a time as this (Esth. 4:14).
