

THE BIRTHING OF THE REMNANT WARRIOR BRIDE

By Joanne Cook Danner

(This writing was birthed through a moving vision in my spirit eye while waiting quietly upon the Lord in his presence, and subsequent scripture verses that are included opened through spiritual revelation as given by the Lord after the moving vision).

At the beginning of the COVID-19 pandemic, there were many things that were unknown. People were in fear and confusion as they isolated themselves on lock down status within their places of residence. There was a sense that a blanket of evil had covered the globe. Neither politician, medical science, financial systems, or governmental systems provided hope or answers to calm the fears of humanity on a global scale. Amid death and darkness, the people of God knew that their hope is in the Lord of Hosts, "For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places" (Eph. 6:12, KJV). God is always working in the hidden places beneath the surface. Concurrently, we see the preparation and coming forth of the warrior remnant bride who is also a forerunner to the end-time harvest. There are a lot of conflicting voices on the world stage, but we need to hear what the spirit of God is saying to the churches (Rev. 2:29). We must maintain a hearing ear and seeing eye in the spirit.

As I meditated upon this during the first Good Friday of the pandemic, I began to see in my spirit eye the dark, blanketed covering over the earth that had left humanity in despair. The world speaks about the apex of death, but God is saying that "there is an apex of his spirit that will pierce through the apex of evil." A sharp silver arrow of redemption and deliverance from the bow of the Lord, shot with precision, appeared beneath the blanket of darkness. The voice of the Lord spoke and said, "the arrow of the Lord will rise and pierce through the darkness." He was working beneath the surface to bring forth the manifestation of his glory." The Lord said that "the work he was doing beneath the surface would be revealed in this hour to such an extent that no one could deny it." He is bringing forth something new in and through the church. He will confound those who are wise in their own eyes.

Continuing in prayer and waiting in the presence of the Lord, I began to see in my spirit eye, the developing remnant warrior bride coming forth in this season of darkness as I saw and heard the trumpet of the Lord blow to herald in the day of awakening. A large, majestic male angel appeared with a gold trumpet. The gold trumpet represented the character of Christ that was formed in the inward parts of the remnant warrior bride. Because of the transformation of character to the image of Christ, the remnant bride was equipped as a warrior to bring deliverance in the earth and combat darkness with spiritual warfare. The angel placed the gold trumpet to his lips and began to blow the trumpet. The sound of the trumpet filled the universe. As the sound of the trumpet blew a clear and certain sound, the base of the trumpet was filled with seeds of glory that were disbursed and reproduced with exponential seeding of the people of God as his nature came forth in his people. Concurrently, the base of the trumpet evolved into a Calla Lilly, which represented the bride of Christ, and the seeds in the base of the trumpet represented the seeds of glory and life that the remnant bride will reproduce in the earth during this end-time harvest.

As the seeds of glory were blown from the trumpet into the earth, the remnant bride reproduced the pure life of Christ in others who quickly grew as pure white lilies of the harvest. As the seeds reproduced in the stature and nature of the character of Christ, the Lord Jesus appeared. He stood and surveyed the holy ground and gathered the pure white lilies into a bouquet that he held in against his heart. The lilies were perfectly formed in the purity of his image and character. He was smiling and filled with joy as he saw the bride coming forth and reproducing his life in the earth. The lilies were endowed with a heavenly fragrance to be released over the earth. This was the forerunner harvest designated to reproduce and carry the glory of God.

Then the Father God manifested himself and opened a new heavenly, kingdom realm over the earth. He peeled back the earthly atmosphere with his hand and another realm was opened where his people would partake of nourishment in the spirit while abiding under this canopy of this open heaven anointing while on this earth. A new dispensation portal was opened over the earth. It was made known that the heart of the Father God was also working to bring forth the remnant warrior bride and church without spot or wrinkle. The Father God placed an eternal vessel that was filled with fresh heavenly oil from the throne of God in the newly created opening over the earth. He poured the holy oil from the mouth of the vessel in the opening of the heavenly realm into the remnant warrior bride. The holy oil was translucent, of heavenly composition with sparkling light weaving through the oil in a motion as if it were dancing within the oil. The oil was the color of honey and similar in color to a topaz stone. The oil contained the glory of God and came down as the latter rain to fill the forerunner remnant warrior bride with oil to overflowing. The forerunner remnant warrior bride had a divine commission to in turn to co-labor with the Lord in the end-time harvest to pour the holy oil into the inhabitants of the earth who were destined to come to the Lord.

The purpose of this anointing oil was to anoint the remnant bride to be filled with the fullness of Christ within the inward parts where the Lord tabernacles with us. As the oil filled the remnant warrior bridal company to capacity, the oil flowed out to others to reproduce the Christ within and to overcome, uproot, and wage spiritual warfare on the works of darkness. Darkness cannot remain when the light is revealed. The remnant warrior bride was anointed and equipped to conquer from the mountain of the Lord where the fire burns from the might lion's roar. The Lord says of his remnant bride, "Who is this that cometh up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved" (Song of Sol. 8:5)? She comes from a vantage point of strength because she has learned to lean upon her beloved. The Lord says of her, "Who is she that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners" (Song of Sol. 6:10)? The remnant bride has governmental power and authority when she comes into alignment to co-labor with the Lord in the end-time harvest. The Lord likens her to a conquering army with banners of victory. When the forerunner remnant bride corporately moved into alignment with her commission from the Lord, the earth became saturated with the glory and fragrance of the transforming presence of God.

Psalms 50:2 conveys to us that "out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God has shined." He will shine through his people. "And saviors shall come up on Mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau; and the kingdom shall be the Lord's" (Obad. 1:21). Esau represents the flesh nature that will be overcome as the kingdom of God is manifested in the earth and through his people. "But on Mount Zion there shall be deliverance; And there shall be holiness; the house of Jacob shall possess their possessions" (Obad. 1:17, NKJV).

Heed the sound of the trumpet call going out in the spirit. The sound of this trumpet is the sound of awakening. The sound of this trumpet is the sound of authority. The sound of this trumpet is a clear and certain recognizable sound. The sound of this trumpet is the sound of declaration. The sound of this trumpet is the sound of the Kingdom of God coming to the earth. The sound of this trumpet is the sound of an alarm. The sound of this trumpet is the sound of a kingdom announcement. The sound of this trumpet is a call to destiny. "See ye, when he lifteth up an ensign on the mountains; And when he bloweth a trumpet, hear ye" (Isa. 18:3-4, KJV).

As the forerunner remnant warrior bride comes forth in the earth to co-labor with the Lord in the end-time harvest, the people of God who have been broken, abandoned, disconnected, and tested through suffering but remained faithful will now be used by God to carry his transformative glory to others. "He dwells with those of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble and to revive the heart of the contrite ones" (Isa. 57:15, KJV). People will be drawn to the Lord through your lives that have become the "living gospel." They will be drawn to the Lord through your light, countenance, peace, love, and compassion that emanates through you as you reflect his glory as a vessel meet for the master's use. His signet has been imprinted within you. You walk in the authority of the King of Kings and Lord of Lords. Expect the unexpected. Expect divine connections. You will indeed conquer from the mountain of the Lord where the fire burns from the mighty lion's roar.
